

Established: 1883

Petersfield Post

Incorporating Clanfield & Horndean

GALLONS OF MILK GOING TO WASTE

Farmers' dilemma: Page 5

PRAISE FOR OUR BIN MEN

Full story: Page 2

INSIDE

Easter bunny hops his way through town

PETERSFIELD: The Easter bunny visited Grange Road delivering sweets and chocolate eggs, much to the joy of youngsters there.

See Page 2

Rainbow story

PETERSFIELD: A Lego rainbow outside a house in the town tells the story of how the multi-coloured symbol came to represent support for the NHS.

See Page 6

Coronavirus hospital

PETERSFIELD: A hospital and its staff are playing a vital role supporting acute hospitals like Queen Alexandra as they treat coronavirus patients.

See Page 4

Your LOCAL paper

Get your Post every week – delivered to your inbox

During the lockdown, it can be difficult to get out to pick up a copy of your favourite local paper. But you can have a digital edition delivered automatically to your laptop, tablet or phone every week.

For all the details, call Chris Etheridge on 01252 725224 or email her at chris.etheridge@farnhamherald.com

My life on the front line

NURSE Aleks Williams has volunteered to work on coronavirus wards at a London hospital.

She says at times the outbreak is 'overwhelming.'

The children's nurse told the Post the scale of it is 'frightening.'

The mother of two said the 13-hour shifts are draining, but she is determined to continue helping coronavirus patients as long as she can.

FULL STORY ■ Page 3

www.antiques.co.uk

We are open for business!

Thousands of visitors a day are browsing our site during the global lockdown

Buy antiques from hundreds of sellers worldwide, or sell your own!

Take photographs of the antique you want to sell.

Quickly and easily enter the details on our easy to use control panel.

Sell your item to a worldwide audience, commission-free!